

Boston Trust Walden

Principled Investing.

Boston Trust Walden Announces Changes to Large Cap Value Portfolio Management Team

Boston, MA (December 31, 2023) – Boston Trust Walden today announced changes to the Large Cap Value portfolio management team. Effective immediately, Mark Zagata will become the lead portfolio manager of the Large Cap Value strategy. Mark has been a member of the portfolio management team since 2015.

Coincident with this change, Richard Williams will step down from his role as a portfolio manager on the Large Cap Value strategy. He will be replaced by Sean Cameron, who joined the firm in July 2020 and serves as a portfolio manager for Boston Trust Walden's Multi-Asset strategies. Sean's portfolio management and securities research experience, along with his commitment to the firm's shared investment philosophy, will support the continued success of the Large Cap Value strategy. Tchintcia Barros will remain the third member of the portfolio management team.

Tchintcia Barros, CFA
Portfolio Manager
BA Dartmouth College
MBA Harvard Business School

Sean Cameron, CFA
Portfolio Manager
BA Princeton University
MBA Harvard Business School

Mark Zagata, CFA
Portfolio Manager
BA Union College
MBA Boston College

Contact

Heidi Vanni
Director of Institutional Strategies
hvanni@bostontrustwalden.com
(617) 726-7136